

Augustine Alchemy 2018

A cooperative recovery day co-sponsored by COSLAA and the Connecticut Intergroup for Sex and Love Addicts Anonymous.

Saturday, August 11th, 2018 - 8AM to 5PM
Save the date and tell others!

The conference is held at the First Methodist Church of Wallingford on Old Rock Hill Road, Wallingford, CT

The topic for this conference is:

KEEP COMING BACK

The conference is open to anyone who thinks they may have this addiction or who is in a relationship with or is a family member with someone with this addiction. This event is not open to press nor media.

Hospitality is open at 8.

There are two plenary (sessions for everyone) at 9AM with a speaker from each fellowship and at closing, again with speakers from each group.

There are restaurants in the area or you may choose to bring a bag lunch.

There is a raffle with baskets supplied by some of the groups with recovery materials. Please consider bringing a basket or item(s) representative of your area or your group.

For more up-to-date information, please visit our website at: www.slaact.com

The recommended 7th tradition donation is $18.00 but free to all who need it.
