

"Not I, nor anyone else can travel that road for you.

You must travel it by yourself.

It is not far. It is within reach.

Perhaps you have been on it since you were born, and did not know.

Perhaps it is everywhere - on water and land."

— Walt Whitman, Leaves of Grass

STEP AND TRADITION OF THE MONTH

STEP 4: Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

TRADITION 4: Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or S.L.A.A. as a whole

What Literature Can Be Used At Meetings?

The meetings in the NEI area (Eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island) have a variety of formats and literature. Many meetings don't read from literature at all. Some literature study meetings read from the S.L.A.A. Basic Text or S.L.A.A. pamphlets. Other literature study meetings read from non-S.L.A.A. materials. Sometimes people want to know what their meeting is allowed to read, specifically if they are allowed to use non-Conference Approved* literature.

The answer is in Tradition 4, which states:

Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or S.L.A.A. as a whole.

Autonomy means the groups are allowed the freedom to run themselves as they like, as determined by group conscience. For literature, autonomy means that groups can decide for themselves what literature to read. In the NEI area, there are meetings that use recovery workbooks, the "Hope and Recovery" book, and books from other sex addiction fellowships. The individual groups can do this because they have the right to choose their recovery materials.

The S.L.A.A. Conference does not encourage the use of non-Conference Approved literature, but it is allowed. If any group chooses to use non-Conference Approved literature, however, it ought to be clearly defined as such. This helps our members understand that the decision to use the materials is the group's, not a decision flowed-down from the Intergroup or the Fellowship. It keeps the decision from affecting other groups or S.L.A.A. as a whole, and it avoids the appearance of an official S.L.A.A. endorsement of outside literature – a violation of Tradition 6 (not endorsing outside enterprises) and Tradition 10 (no opinion on outside issues).

- David B

* "Conference Approved Literature" is literature that has been approved with a vote by delegates at an S.L.A.A. Annual Business Conference. That's the S.L.A.A. Basic Text and the various pamphlets.
