STEP AND TRADITION OF THE MONTH

STEP 9 Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

TRADITION 9 S.L.A.A. as such ought never to be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

DIGNITY OF SELF

make amends, to compensate, as for an injury, loss, or insult:

I tried to make amends for the misunderstanding by sending her flowers.

--Dictionary.com

Making amends!??? The thought just scared me. How? Where? When? After a whole lifetime of wrongs? Not just as a sex and love addict with the sexual acting out but also the lying, back biting, screaming, cheating, neglecting, intimidating and on and on and on.

What I had done to my wife, kids, parents, brothers and sisters, friends, employers, colleagues and people I acted out with was an enormous if not impossible undertaking to list and recall. Now I had to find people, write to them, seek them out, admit my wrongs to them and clear up my side of the street.

When I started SLAA I had felt that I would talk to my wife and kids tell them I was sorry and would try to never act out again. As time, experience in program with sponsors, meetings and friends accumulated over the next 8 plus years I learned that there are a lot of steps in between (and a lot of work) that prepare me for the ninth step.

Although I have not formally completed a ninth step at this time, there are many things I have been doing to make amends to people I have hurt. Attending meetings and staying sober are the first two. There are many other ways I have been making informal amends like staying present and listening which requires sobriety and staying out of fantasy land.

So, as I finish steps 6 and 7, I will turn to 8 and 9 knowing that I have prepared myself to move forward in recovery and will be able to fully relate to the following:

Now we were truly feeling some sense of deep release from the past! We were free of much guilt for our misdeeds, from the shame of having fallen short of our inner values. In many instances, the values we had thought were ours had turned out to be someone else's, and we had shed or changed these to allow the seeds of our own personal wholeness to take root and grow.

*We were indeed living new, positive, unfolding lives. Whether in partnership with others or in solitude, we had truly been granted a spiritual release from our sex and love addiction. While vigilance was still important, the choices we had to make now seemed easier. We felt increasing confidence in our developing partnership with God, and were full participants in the Fellowship of SLAA. We enjoyed solitude and were unafraid of honesty and openness with others. We could comprehend what it means to have dignity of self.
